P. E. EZEKTEL

Election

At the meeting of Washington Engine Co., on Tuesday evening, A. S. Davenport was elected Foreman and Wm. H. Devlin Assist. Foreman of the company.

The Washingtons' are agitating the question of a new engine house in which we hope they will be successful.

Market.

On Monday next work will begin upon the market. Two weeks is the time in which the work must be done.

Mischief.

Some malicious person upset the brick piers to be used as a foundation for Mr. Pollitzer's warehouse. Mr. Pollitzer offers twenty-five dollars for information to convict the rasca' of malicious mischief.

OFF FOR CUBA. - The brig R. B. Gove. Harkness, master, sailed from Port Royal for Havanna, on Saturday last, with a cargo of railroad ties.

J. C. Rivers last week resigned the office of jury commissioner for Beaufort county.

Three sailors filled themselves with Port Royal whiskey on Friday last and indulged in free fight. Knives were freely flourished but the only damage done after all was with a very hard fist which knocked one man down and left him for dead-drunk.

Charles Jones, one of the twelve men drowned in Coosaw river, on the night of November 18, was found on Monday last. Dr. Jno. A. Johnson. deputy coroner, was notified of the fact and an inquest was held on Tuesday.

On account of the rain on Thanksgiving day, the Cosmos were obliged to postpone their match game to some future day, a notice of which will be given.

The members of Washington Engine Co, No. 2 was out in full force on Monday last for the purpose of giving their machine a trial, some repairs having been done, which was perfectly satisfactorily.

Coal.

Arrangements bave been made to land at Port Royal by rail, from fifty to two hundred tons of coal daily, so as to increase the st ck sufficient to supply the navy in case Uncle Sam starts out to capture Cuba and thrush Spain.

On Wednesday morning, a couple of fellows, Ben Rhett and Henry Foster, who very probable were well soaked with their morning dram, were in a boat in the stream, when opposite the phosphate dock, they voluntarily engaged in a butting match. Henry at first thought his head to be the hardest, but was soon deceived in his idea, by a couple of well directed blows from the prow of Ben. which sent Henry to the bottom of the boat. After floating about in thoughts for a few minutes; as to whether he was overboard or not; Henry said: "Ben. my friend, let's go to another housethis hotel leaks." They went on board a flat lying near by, and being evidently satisfied with what had already occurred. they concluded to let the matter drop where it was and proceeded to their business.

The Citizens Saving bank of Columbia has gone into voluntary bankruptcy, although it reports its assets to the amount of four hundred thousand dollars over its liabilities.

A meeting will be held in Charleston on the 11th instant, to aid the Air Line railroad which is designed to connect Chicago with the couth Atlantic. We hope the meeting will be a success, and hope that some aid will be secured. Such a road could not fail to help Charleston, though there is not the slightest chance that that city will be the terminus of the proposed road. As all roads once led to Rome, all roads from the west must now lead to deep water-i. e. Port Royal.

Confiscated Property.

The supreme court of the United States has decided in the case of property confiscated by military orders in New Orleans that the confiscation was void, because there was not and could not be a legal service of notice to the owner.

Southern Historical Society.

We have just seen, for the first time n the hands of a friend, a neatly printed pamphlet of forty pages, from the press of Turnbull & Bro's., publishers to the "Southern Historical society," Baltimore. It contains the proceedings of the Southern Historical convention, which assembled at the White Sulphur Springs, Va., 14th August, 1873.

Delegates were present from Louisiana Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama, Texas. South Carolina, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Tennessee and Virginia. The convention was held at the instance of the "Southern Historical Society," an organization formed in the city of New Orleans, in 1869. Upon the commendation of that society, its head quarters were removed to Richmond, Va. An entire reorganization has been the result; followed by the election, on the second day of the session, of the fol lowing officers: President, Gen. Jubal A. Early, of Va. Vice-President, Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, of Va.

Secty. and Treas., Col. G. W. Munford, of Va. Thirteen "Vice-Presidents of States" were also elected for a like number of States, and one for the District of Colum-

A special meeting of the society was called by the president, Gen. Early, for Sept. 16th. On that day an address was delivered by Admiral Semmes, in review of comments on his career as a naval commander in the service of the late confederacy. The text has not yet been

A large portion of the above publication is taken up with the address of Gen. Early before the convention. The General certainly needs reconstruction; but there is little doubt that many, very many, of the readers of it share the sentiments it proclaims. Not a few too, of those, diametrically opposed to him, will be constrained to give him credit, at least for honesty and candor. There is no mistaking his position.

The purpose of the society appear to be praiseworthy. Fifty dollars consti tutes one a "life menber." Annual membership is attained by annual subscription of three dollars.

The transactions will be published or plan by Messrs. Turnbull & Bro's., who are also publishers of the "Southern Harrowing Details of the Loss of the Ville du Havre—The statement of the Purser.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.

The special dispatches give the following details of the loss of the Ville du Havre: Most of the passengers were too terrified to try to save themselves. Many prayed and many laid down with the almness of utter despair. Some hearing the water pouring into the ship nev-er quitted their staterooms. Whole fan-ilies thus went down together. The four boats lowered by the Loch Earn found the passengers and crew floating on the waves holding on to planks, spars, and whatever could be seized as the wreck went down. Many had thus prepared themselves from the first. Many of the women saved were floating on the water. The captain of the Ville du Havre is reported to have been quite exhausted by his three days and nights uninterrupted duty. The officer who was in command when the collision took place was lost. The sufferings of those who were rescued was intense, the cold being very severe. Many persons were nearly insensible, and most of the rescued ones would have utterly perished in a few minutes more.
The rescuing was all a motter of haphazard, as the time permitted no organized effort or attempt at choice. The purser of the steamer says: "In a few minutes the ship began to sink amid great disor-der. The scene was awful beyond de-scription. The air was reut with shricks, but some were heard saying calmly, 'as we must die, let us die nobly.' The wa-ter rushed into the hold with incredible relocity.

I undressed myself, and with my com panion jumped overboard and swam to-ward the Loch Earn, half a mile distant. I heard the ship cracking, and looking back saw her go down with one plunge forward. For a moment the shrieks were terrible, then all was silent. Alas! it was the silence of death."

Number 84.

NEW YORK, November 30 New York, November 30
Tweed was taken to Blackwell's Island on Saturday, accompanied by his son and son-inlaw. A large crowd witnessed his departure. Upon arriving at the prison he was asked the usual questions by the recording clerk, to which he answered that he was aged fifty, occupation statesman, no religion, but as his family are Protestants he was entered as Protestant. He weighed two hundred and sixty-three pounds, was taken to the and sixty-three pounds, was taken to the bath, then had his head shaved in penitentiary style, and was arrayed in the striped uniform. He had two letters from New York physicians recommending that he be placed in the hospital, but after an examination by the penitentiary physician he was remanded to a common cell like all other felons and numbered thirty-four. The jacket given him to wear is known at the pententiary as a larceny jacket. His son stayed by him till he was led away to his cell, when he and a few friends and reporters left the island.

Pain-Killer a most valuable remedy sourge the Cholera.

In administering the medicine I found it most effectual to give a tea-spoonful of Pain-Killer in a gill of hot water sweetened with sugar; then in about fitteen minutes, begin to give a table-spoonful of the same mixture every few minutes until relief was obtained. Apply hot applications to the extremities. Bathe the stomach with the Pain-Killer, clear, and rub the limbs briskly. Of those who had the Chole ra, and took the medicine faithfully, in the way stated above, eight out of ten recovered. REV R. TELFORD, Missionary in China.

DEAR SIRS: During a long residence in China have used your valuable Pain-Killer, both in my own family and among the Chinese, and have four it a most excellent medicine. In the summers of 1862 and 1863, while residing in Shangahi, I found it an almost certain cure for cholera, if used in time Indeed, using it in a great many instances, I do not remember failing in a single case, For three years I have been residing in this place, more than fifty miles from a physician, and have been obliged ofter to fall upon my own resources in cases of sickness The Cinese come to us in great numbers for med cine and advice. Though without medical know ledge ourselves, the few simple remidles we can command are so much in advance even of their phy sicians, that we have almost daily applications. W allow them to come, because it brings us into contac with them and opens a door of usefulness. In diar rhea, colic, vomiting, cholera, coughs, etc., your Pain Killer has been my chief medicine. Yours, very truly,

Rev. T. P. CRAWFORD, Tungchow, Thina.
Those using Pain-Killer should strictly observe the ollowing directions:

At the commencement of the disease, take a tea confull of Pain-Killer, in sugar and water, and then bathe freely across the stomach and bowels with the Pain-Killer clear. Should the diarrhea and cramp continue, repeat the dose every fifteen min In this way the dreadful scourge may be checked and the patient relieved in the course of a few hours.

N. B .- Be sure and get the genuine article; and it recommended by those who have used the Pain-Killer for the cholers, that in extreme cases the pa-tient take two (or more) tea spoonfuls instead of one-The PAIN-KILLER is sold by all the Druggists and Dealers in Family Medicines. Price 25 and 50 cents and $1.
